WAIVER

It is Delmar's recommendation that all shipments be insured for loss, damage, theft, General Average and other unfortunate occurrences, proper coverage being the responsibility of our clientele. As an additional service Delmar can arrange insurance on your behalf as per the above fee structure. Should you wish not to make use of our cargo insurance services, please indicate your preference by completing this waiver. Please note that where you have declined Delmar's offer to provide insurance coverage for your shipment(s), and in the absence of any finding of liability as issued by a court of competent jurisdiction, Delmar declines all liability or responsibility for cargo loss, damage, theft or similar occurrence, to the extent such claim(s) derive from a refusal by your private insurer to assist in any such claim recovery either in whole or in part. Delmar acts as authorized agent for DelTrans International Shipping Corp. (DelTrans). With regards to the transport of marine cargo, Delmar's liability for loss or damage to goods shall be governed by the limits to liability as stipulated on the DelTrans ocean bill of lading a copy of whose terms and conditions may be found at www.del-trans.com. Liability related to other services provided by Delmar is subject to the standard trading conditions of the National Customs Broker and Forwarders Association of America Inc (NCBFAA). In the case of inconsistency or conflict between these respective terms and conditions, the provisions set out on the DelTrans bill of lading shall prevail.
